

What Happens To The Money Once It Is Collected?

Funds received are deposited in a state-mandated trust account. We remit net funds back to our clients no later than the 20th of the following month, along with a statement of accounts and transaction report. Funds payable to our clients are protected by a Surety Bond to guarantee payment.