

I have a large quantity of files. Do I have to enter them one at a time?

Absolutely not. We can accept data files for larger batch placements. As long as the format is consistent, we will be able to map your data file and import the debtor information directly into our system. We accept XLS, CSV and TXT files. Please be sure to include the demographic information requested in the manual submission form. Contact us via email for additional information.